

Exciting Chocolate Fun in London!

THE LONDON CHOCOLATE TRAIL

OVERVIEW:

Go on a chocolate journey through London discovering the rich heritage of chocolate in London as well as visiting some of the top chocolate destinations in the city. You'll visit some of London's iconic landmarks while solving clues and completing challenges.

This activity can be combined with chocolate making to make a full day of activity.

SUITABLE FOR: Small to large groups who want an active event discovering some of the hidden history and chocolate delights of London. This activity involves some walking and tube travel so will not be suitable for people with difficulties in these areas.

NUMBERS: 12–100+ delegates

LOCATION: Outdoors and indoors

DURATION: 3 ½ - 4 hrs

OUTLINE ITINERARY:

Participants are welcomed with tea / coffee and handmade chocolates. After a thorough briefing and allocation of teams, each team is given a trail pack with team money, instructions and maps before setting off on their exciting chocolate journey!

They'll visit 3 areas of London associated with our rich chocolate history and will need to be back at base by the appointed time.

Along the way, they'll be tasting and sampling as well as discovering the chocolate heritage of the city and completing challenges.

Then it's back to base for a much needed drink and final scores. Points are awarded for challenges completed and the winning team receive special chocolate prizes.

If booked with a chocolate making session, participants will enjoy a light lunch followed by chocolate making.
